{enclose http://dev.ksco.got.net/podcasts/2011-04-08.mp3}

The following is a KSCO commentary. Here is Kay Zwerling:

Now that I am 90 – 90 today, dear Lord – I am 90 and there is much I have not done. I hope, dear Lord, You will let me live until I am 91.

If I have not finished all I want to do, would You let me stay around until I am 92?

So many places I want to go, so much I want to see – do You think You could manage to make it 93?

Many things I may have done, but there is so much left in store – I would like very much to live to 94.

And, if by then I am still alive, then I would like to stay to 95.

The world is changing very fast, so I would really like to stick around and see what happens to the world when I am 96.

I know, dear Lord, it is a lot to ask, and it will be nice in Heaven, but I would really like to stay around until I am 97.

I know by then I won't be fast, and sometimes I will be late, but it will be oh so pleasant to be around at 98.

I will have seen so many things and had a wonderful time, and so I am sure that I will be will be willing to leave when I am 99 (well maybe). – By Anonymous.

For KSCO, this is Kay Zwerling.

© copyright 2011