The following is a KSCO commentary. Here is Kay Zwerling:

Dear Listeners,

This is a story about two men who like money very much. One of them is wealthy, very wealthy, because his business owns many store branches around the entire United States.

I believe this is a story of incredible greed.

I also believe these two buddies hired two local attorneys to look into issues regarding our Fairgrounds which naturally makes noise during all hours of the day and night.

I believe these two men have an evil agenda.

I further believe they instructed their attorneys to make life legally miserable for our Fairgrounds personnel to the extent that the Fairgrounds would be forced to close down like frivolous lawsuits.

Evidently State Fairgrounds no longer receive government funds.

I also believe these rich skunks would immediately purchase the Fairgrounds land and develop it into home sites to make a financial killing for themselves.

I believe they do not care, that thousands of us would be denied the pleasures of all the wonderful activities of our own Fairgrounds.

Money does evil things to some people. One wonders how much is ever enough.

Now, if all of the above is indeed true, we at KSCO are committed to exposing these two scoundrels and their attorneys so that their evil plans will never come to fruition.

For KSCO, this is Kay Zwerling.
