surveys taken during last week's "registry week" event help officials determine how many chronically homeless people are in santa cruz . abo ut 155 homeless people in santa cruz county are at a high risk of death. the survey determined which of the 325 surveyed homeless people had "mortality risk identifiers", such as aids, liver disease and other illnesses

•