Monologue

Dr. Wallach starts the show citing studies that have concluded some surgeries such as knee replacements and lower back surgery are unnecessary. Doc asserts that people need to start educating themselves about their own health and become their own health advocate. Contending that as 80 million "baby boomers" are set to hit Medicare healthcare will begin to be rationed.

Pearls of Wisdom

Doug Winfrey and Dr. Wallach discuss a news story concerning a Philadelphia abortion doctor. The doctor has been accused of 8 murders one patient was over-dosed on Demerol and at least 7 live birth babies were killed. The doctor was performing abortions on women who were in their sixth, seventh and even eighth month of pregnancy.
